

GMN Paul Müller Industrie GmbH & Co. KG

GMN declaration

- Environmental management in accordance with DIN EN ISO 14001:2015
- Management system for health and safety in accordance with DIN ISO 45001:2018

GMN Paul Müller Industrie GmbH & CO. KG has an integrated management system for quality and energy management. The management system is certified by DQS in accordance with DIN EN ISO 9001:2015 and DIN EN ISO 50001:2018; the certificates confirm, amongst other aspects, that the organisation and procedures within our business are specified and documented in a traceable manner as per these standards.

It is currently not intended to obtain additional external certification for further management systems beyond our existing integrated management system, in particular in accordance with DIN EN ISO 14001 or DIN ISO 45001.

Nevertheless, GMN Paul Müller Industrie GmbH & CO. KG undertakes to take into account the entire management system, consisting of:

- Quality management in accordance with DIN EN ISO 9001
- Energy management in accordance with DIN EN ISO 50001
- Environmental management in accordance with DIN EN ISO 14001
- Management system for occupational health and safety as per DIN EN ISO 45001 internally within our integrated management system and document it in the associated management documents.

The related representatives and responsible functions within the integrated management system are correspondingly independent and report directly to the senior management.

In summary, we would therefore request you to:

- continue to include GMN on your list of suppliers even without additional external certificates in accordance with DIN EN ISO 14001 or DIN EN ISO 45001
- accept this statement as the "GMN environmental and occupational safety declaration"
- refrain from signing individual customer documents

The Quality Management Department is at your disposal if you have any queries related to this matter.
